

Allerton Public Library District Program Room Use Agreement

Allerton Public Library District offers limited use of its Program Room as a meeting space for cultural, educational, and civic organizations and card holders in the library district. The room is not available for private social functions. Program Room use is by reservation for up to two hours per reservation. Please call the library to determine if the room is available. Tentative dates can be held, but nothing is confirmed until this Agreement has been signed and returned to the library. A $50 damage deposit must accompany this form.

Reservations may be made up to 3 months in advance. Requests will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis. The room may be reserved for up to 12 meetings per group in a 12-month period. All meetings must conclude before the library closes.
